Burlington at It, and the Union Pa citic Will Follow.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21.-Nebraska railroads are reducing forces. This is partly due to the drouth, though it has heen going on some lines for same time.

A Burilington official today, in speaking of the wholesalt discharge of employees now going on, said:

"I believe it would be a conservative estimate to say that 1,200 men on the Burilington south here."

"I believe it would be a conservative estimate to say that 1,200 men on the Burlington system have been discharged since June 1: During July, the greatest number of employees were dismassed from the service through no fault of their own—because business would not warrant their further continuance. Wherever possible forces are being reduced section crows being cut down, train and enginemen are given service letters, shop and round house men are being laid off, and clerks in the various offices are required to work additional time. In fact, wherever possible, salaries are being saved and forces reduced. It is impossible to say just where this wholesaie decapitation wall end."

But the Burlington is not alone in reducing forces. It is pretty generally thought that the Union Pacific will also make another reduction in forces and even salaries may have to be cut, if the pourt can be brought to that way of thinking. With the abandonment of so many roads and the segregation, it has become imperatively necessary that the company retrench still further, but just where to make the cut is a purgler for General Manager Dickinson.

The crime with which the men are charged was one of the most cold-blooded ever committed in Kansas. In 1890 W. H. Gibson and J. S. Frazer were partners in an extensive cattle business in Chautauqua. They imported 1,400 head of Texas steers to which the neighboring raisers objected, fearing they would spread Texas fever. Gibson and Frazer refused to remove the cattle, however, and in consequence was threatened with death. They pald no heed to threats, but in May of that year Gibson was found dead in a hotel at Moline, Kan.

Gibson's death was thought to have been caused by heart disease, but the finding of Frazer's body led to the murder theory. Since then search for the murderers has quietly progressed, culminating today in what the authorities believe to be the arrest of the active participants.

Dover, Delaware, Aug. 31.—The Republican state convention, to choose candidates for governor and congressman, met in the state capitol, this city, today.

The platform adopted reaffirms a belief in the doctrine of protection to American industries; favors laws to protect American labor from the evils of unfestricted foreign immigration; denounces the tariff bill just passed by Congress as a cowardly makeshift that will reduce the wages of American workmen and continue the business depression; denounces the income tax feature of the bill; approves reciprocity; favors bimetallism—a gold and silver currency, equalized by conditions fixed by national agreement; declare that full national prosperity will not be restored until silver is restored to its full debt-paying basis; denounces the national Democratic administration as incompetent to conduct affairs of the nation at home and abroad; favors the extension of our foreign commerce and the increase of the American navy, and endorses Senator Higgins.

Joshus B. Harvill, of Laurel, was then nominated for governor and Rev. Jonathan Willis, of Milford, for representative in Congress.

The Farmington contingent of the Utah National Guard—company K—went up to Lake Como, near Morgan, yesterday. They were accompanied by the Farmington military band and the choir; in all probably 159 Davis county people will spend this week at Lake Como. A sham battle between the Farmington and Morgan companies will be one of the attractions. Several Kaysville people accepted company K's invitation, and have gone up to enjoy the outing.

The Bristol mill, prosecuted recently for running on Saturday afternoons, is loaded with orders. The operatives at a mass meeting today voted not to return to work until the law is complied with.

STATE COAL CONVENTION.

A Desperate Effort Will Be Made to Bring Order Out of Chaos.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—The coal with things to the value of $2.40, which he pot recovered by the police from the men under arrest for running the game.

The chief is very cool and calm under the cross fire of suits and counter suits which he has been subjected to by the numerous claimants of the boodle. He says he will hold on to the sack until it is authoritatively settled to whom it belongs. A test case in the Third district court will ultimately decide the question.

was fully on and arrested both the men. Yesterday afternoon the parsonage of the Congregational church at the corner of First South and Fourth East streets, was entered by burglars and completely ransacked. The Rev. Brown and family have been away for some weeks and the house was locked up; it was therefore a good mark for the housebreakers. A great deal of valuable property has been stolen. Officer Gillespie has the case in hand and is working bard on it. The police have a clue to the burglars and they will in all probability soon be behind the bars. The search for the stolen property is being vigorously prosecuted.

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE.

His Quota of Plants Will Go to the Grave of Jefferson.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Congressman Bryan, of Nebraska, who is a devoted Bryan, of Nebraska, who is a devoted disciple of Thomas Jefferson, has presented his quota of plants from the botanical garden for the decoration of pleferson's burial place. They will be selected by the present owner of Monticello, Hon. Jefferson Levy, with the aid of Superintendent Smith, of Carris' botanical garden. The old tree which standarlose by Jefferson's tomb, distinguished by the fact that he and Dabney Carr, when boys, used to read under its shade, when boys, used to read under its shade, has recently died, but the trunk will be left standing, and is to be ornamented by a rare variety of ivy, first brought to this country from the grave of Robert Bures.

Burns. The gift grows out of a pilgrimage made by Mr. Bryan to Monticello about three months ago.

PRESIDENT WIRT SHOT. Was Probably Mistaken For Sheriff

Bowers.

Denver, Aug. II.—A special to the Republican from Cripple Creek, Colo., sayof. B. Wirt, president of the Ben Hur Mining company, who lives in Omaha, was shot through both arms tonight, half a mile this side of Victoria, and the horse of J. M. Roseberry, secretary of the same company, who also lives in Omaha, was shot in the neck by a gang of six men, who fired over thirty shots at them from Winchester rifles.

Wirt and Roseberry had been down to Lawrence examining some mining property, and started home after $ o'clock. They had traveled about a mile when they were attacked.

It appears to be the opinion that the affair was an attempt to assassinate Sheriff Bowers, of this county, who had been active of late in making arrests of miners implicated in the late Cripple Creek war, and these two men were inistaken for the sheriff and his deputy. Bowers.
